

THE CHRISTMAS STORY

1. In a crib in a manger, God was born from above.

As the prophets foretold it, God sent us His Love.

Born of a virgin, God's only Son.

The Divine became human and God made them one.

The angels proclaimed it, the royal birth,

That God came from Heaven to live on the earth.

The shepherds it and came to see

They left there rejoicing, their hearts set free.

Ch. v 1 & 2 God's love flows free all over this whole wide world that all may see God sent us His love.

2. Simeon awaited the birth of the King,

For God had promised he'd see this thing,

The Messiah coming born as a child,

His purpose being the world reconciled.

The wise men sought Him, they traveled afar,

Then bowed down before Him, they followed His star.

Mary pondered these things in her heart,

It gave her wisdom to do her part.

3. He grew into manhood a man among men,

Then started His mission, the world to win.

He lived on this earth sinless and free,

Then died on the cross for you and for me.

When you meet Jesus, who died for your soul,

Just ask Him to save you, He'll make your life whole.

He'll cleanse you from sin and set you free;

He'll make your life new for eternity.

Ch V3 Christ's blood flowed free for all of the whole wide world so all may be reborn from above.
